

Nothing could be less fair to the citizens of Oklahoma than to allow a monopoly of the news media. We are "honored" to have the newspaper voted "Worst in the USA" by the Colombia school of journalism and the owner would love to buy every media outlet so his version of "truth" would go undisputed except by the underground press. I thought the name of the game in America was competition, not unfair monopolies.